Step Up Silicon Valley Invites You

To participate in a 2-Day Capacity Building Workshop on Social Enterprise Capacity Development

Offered by our friends and partners at the Global Social Benefit Institute (GSBI),
Santa Clara University

The workshop is a perfect follow up to the recent Social Enterprise Development presentation we had with Mike Fox, Jr., CEO of Goodwill of Silicon Valley and we hope you take advantage of this practical training. To access the presentation by Mike Fox, Jr., click here.

Program Details

The Global Social Benefit Institute (GSBI) and eBay Foundation are partnering to run a specialized 2-day capacity building program. This program is targeted towards social enterprises with impact in the Bay Area that are working in the livelihood sector. This Boost Camp aims to help organizations which have the potential to create significant social impact learn to conduct financially sustainable operations and prepare for funding or investment.

The Boost Camp will be held September 25-26 on the Santa Clara University campus. Thanks to eBay's support, accepted enterprises will bear no costs for participation in the workshop. The deadline to apply is August 10.
